

Literacy:

Incredible Edibles by Stefan Gates

Princess' Blankets by Carol Ann Duffy & Catherine

Hyde

The Lost Words by Robert Macfarlane & Jackie Morris

Maths:

Factors and multiples, mental multiplication & division and written multiplication and division.
Fractions, decimals and percentages.
Measurement: length, perimeter and area.

Science: Sound. Identifying how sounds are made and how they travel through a medium (eg. air) to the ear (Y4). Describe the movement of Earth and the other planets relative to the sun in the solar system; describe the orbit of the moon (Y5).

Computing:

Research skills and programming a 'Chatbot' with Scratch.

Physical Education:

Volleyball and dance.

Our PE days are Tuesday and Wednesday.

What can we learn from the Maya?

MARDON

OUR LEARNING MAP

SPRING

Enrichment Event(s):

Cooking with chocolate.

Incredible edibles cooking challenge.

Personal, Social and Health Education: Dreams and Goals for myself and for people in other countries and cultures.

Religious Education:

Exploring the main themes in Hinduism (including dharma, karma, samsara and moksha).

Outdoor Learning:

Growing crops for our Maya cooking.

Mayan weaving and feather work.

Mayan pottery and sculpture.

Geography: Understanding human geography, including types of settlement and land use.
Understanding the distribution of natural resources including food, minerals and water.

History: Mayan civilisation - AD900. The nature and history of an ancient, non-European civilisation.
Exploring contrasting records of the past and locating the Mayan period on a timeline.

Modern Foreign Language (Spanish):

Days of the week, months and daily routines.

Music: How does music bring us together?
Interesting time signatures & composition with glockenspiels and recorders.

Art: Mayan ceramics and sculpture. Frescoes, murals and Mayan warrior masks.

Design Technology/ Cooking:

Cooking Mayan recipes (chocolate).